

Stand ST-401

Order Code: 100014488

Stand proud

For stand-alone installations, the ST-401 facilitates a stable secure and stylish stand for the NEC V and P Series Large Format Displays*. Easy to attach via VESA mounting and two height adjustable positions for each display size; this stand perfectly complements the display and offers a practical application. This is the ideal solution for all applications where permanent installation or a mounting solution is unsuitable, where the display needs to remain mobile or where setting up or servicing of the screen is required.
