BY NEC DISPLAY SOLUTIONS

$10,000 Prize Goes to Winner's Favorite Charity

CHICAGO – May 31, 2012 – NEC Display Solutions of America, a leading provider of commercial LCD display and projector solutions, announced today the judges for the 2012 Best of InfoComm Award, which acknowledges the best product or service at InfoComm12. The winning exhibitor will be awarded $10,000 for the charity of its choice.

Public voting for the award competition, sponsored by NEC Display Solutions, concludes Monday, June 4, 2012, at <http://best.necdisplay.com/vote>. The five entries with the most public votes will be announced at the Las Vegas Convention Center in NEC Booth No. C6819 on Wednesday, June 13. The following panel of industry leaders will judge the top five submissions:

- ❖ Lyle Bunn – Principal and Strategy Architect, BUNN Co.
- ❖ Gary Kayye – Certified Technology Specialist and Founder, rAVe Publications
- ❖ David Keene – Executive Editor, NewBay Media
- ❖ Chuck Wilson – Executive Director, National Systems Contractors Association

Pierre Richer, NEC Display Solutions President and CEO, will present the Best of InfoComm Award to the winning company at 10am PT on Friday, June 15.

The InfoComm exhibit hall is open June 13 – 15 at the Las Vegas Convention Center, and NEC Display Solutions will exhibit its full line of professional LCD displays, projectors, software and other technologies in Booth No. C6819.

“We are very proud to sponsor The Best of InfoComm Award for the fourth consecutive year,” said Ashley Flaska, Vice President of Marketing for NEC Display Solutions.

“InfoComm continually brings together the best companies in the audio/visual and digital signage industries, and this award recognizes the great achievements made in the last 12 months. We are fortunate to have so many great contenders for the award and look forward to seeing who is selected as the best of the best by our expert judge panel.”

InfoComm12 assembles approximately 32,000 commercial AV professionals, technology managers, chief information officers and procurement personnel from more than 80 countries. Education sessions, including a range of digital signage classes, will offer AV pros the key training they need to stay proficient with rapidly changing technology.
